ICS Crusader Highlights

ICS Open House Slated For March 18th

Immaculate Conception School has scheduled an open house at the school for Thursday, March 18, 2010.

The school will be open all day during regular school hours for any family or parent who would like to visit any of the classrooms or take a tour of the school.

The school will also be open from 4:30 pm—6:30 pm. Prospective parents and students may meet with the administration to answer any questions during those times. The classrooms will be open and tours of the school will be conducted.

The highlight of the day will be a concert performed by Glenn Colton at 1:00 pm and also an evening performance at 7:00 pm in the gymnasium. Mr. Colton's theme for his concert is "America the Beautiful." The concert is free and all are welcome to attend.

Registration packets for the 2010-2011 school year will be available.

Mrs. Embser's First Grade Class say prayers prior to having their midday meal.

Solo Fest Musicians Perform Well

Three of Mrs. Carol Williams strings students recently participated in Solo Fest in Fillmore, NY.

The three students, Gregory Williams (violin), Lily Norton (cello), and Danielle Gilfert (violin) participated.

All three students did extremely well. Greg Williams and Danielle Gilfert received an "Excellent" score and Lily Norton received an "Outstanding" score.

Schools from all over Allegany County participated in the Solo Fest competition.

Spring Baseball Clinic Scheduled

ICS will again be sponsoring a “Spring Training Baseball Clinic in March. The clinic will be held every Tuesday night in March from 6:00 pm until 8:15 pm and will run for four weeks.

Registration is open to boys and girls ages 7—10.

The clinic will concentrate on hitting, fielding, and throwing fundamentals. Each day’s activity will end with a motivational lecture on character and leadership building.

The cost is $30.00 for the first child and $25.00 for each additional family member (limit 3 children per family).

Deadline for the registration is February 24th. Registration forms are available in the school office.

For more information on the clinic, please contact Joe Hart at 585-593-9046.

Poster Contest Winner

Lily Norton took first place in the recent Catholic School’s Week poster contest.

Lily is an eighth grader at ICS and is the daughter of Chet and Sue Norton.

Mrs. Lanzo and Mrs. Catino recently completed their first aid, CPR & AED training at a class held at ICS. Also receiving recertification was Mrs. Newark, Mr. Cutler, Mrs. Whitehouse, Coach Brush, and Coach Morretti.

Mrs. Burdick also received her certification for the first time. The class was conducted by Red Cross Instructor, Dan Denner.

Cedar Chest Raffle Underway

The ICS Strings program will be raffling off a handcrafted cedar chest. The cedar chest is constructed of solid oak and is completely lined with cedar. The beautiful custom cedar chest was handmade and donated by David Anderson of Scio.

The cost of the tickets is $1.00 or $5.00 for 6 tickets. Tickets are available from any ICS Strings student and they are also available in the office.

The winning ticket for the cedar chest will be drawn on Mother’s Day, May 9, 2010.

Miss Jill Reads to Kindergarten

ARC friend, Miss Jill Wilson, reads once a week to Mrs. Newark’s kindergarten class—an activity that both Miss Jill and the class always look forward to.

Miss Jill has been reading to Mrs. Newark’s class for three years! Thank you Miss Jill and ARC!

“Music Class” Musical Was Big Hit!

The students at ICS recently held their first musical in a very long time at the school. The musical called “Music Class” was performed to a full house and was a great success. The musical, under the direction of music instructor, Mrs. Mary Potter, involved the entire student body in grades Kindergarten through grade 8.

Century 21 After School Programs For February

Some upcoming events for this month include the “John Brown Trial” at Alfred University on Feb. 24th from 2:15 pm—7:30 pm . Students will prepare a case against the abolitionist martyr and put the fellow on trial.

On Feb. 26th there will be a Winter Recreation Night from 5 pm—8 pm. Volunteers are needed for score keeping, refereeing and the “snack stand”.
